

Groundwater Relief Membership Form

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of Groundwater Relief. We are a charitable organisation of groundwater professionals working to alleviate poverty through using our skills to help others develop and manage groundwater resources.

As a member you will be emailed opportunities to use your skills to support projects we are involved with. We will also support you with ideas you have, if they help us achieve our goals.

Please return the completed form to admin@groundwater-relief.org. Please contact us at this email address if you have any queries or problems with the form.

Permission to Share Information

Groundwater Relief holds the data you provided to us on a central stand-alone database. We will not share this data with external individuals, organisations or charities without first obtaining your permission. By volunteering for a project you are thereby providing us permission to share your details with Groundwater Relief project officers and the charity staff who are engaged on that project.

Declaration

When I express a written interest to support a Groundwater Relief project or enquiry, I understand and consent to my personal information being shared with Groundwater Relief project officers and/or charity staff who are involved with that project or enquiry.
